Transitions...

In May of 2009, after 20 years of radio dialog, WGN—AM 720 surprisingly canceled the 'Kathy & Judy' show. Their many fans, known as girlfriends (whether female or male) were flooded! Many had participated in the often heated and adult conversations discussing current events and most importantly personal feelings and experiences.

Join us 'girlfriends' for dinner and discover what Kathy & Judy did when, like many listeners, they found themselves in transition...

Rockford Network of Professional Women (RNPW) is a group of dynamic women from diverse occupations who support each other in their careers and in doing so make a difference every day—through leadership, influence, and philanthropy.

Each year RNPW presents two scholarships enabling local women to further their education, enriching their professional lives and by doing so, positively contributing to our community. Periodic fundraisers provide the funds for these scholarships.
